Report of our November 1, 2009 reading session

Evan led our session through a variety of works: a Mozart Serenade, Debussy's Claire de Lune (with 3 violin parts), Dvorak's Four Bagatelles and J.S. Bach's Brandenburg Concerto No. 2. A good-sized group, strings were covered by Ashley Borders, Ruth Lepp and Innes Borstel on cello, Peggy LaVake and Isa Borstel on viola, Luba Schnabel, Barbara Brandyberry, Jennifer Seligman (welcome back after a long time!), Dan Daniels (shifting among first, second and third as needed) and yours truly on violins. Woodwinds: Alice Marcus on oboe/english horn, Laura Papparatto and Debbie Carr on flute, Donna Dixon on clarinet (and impressive surrogate trumpet in the Brandenburg #2), and Steve Lepp, oboe.
